

PROMOTING MENTAL HEALTH & WELLBEING

Frankston Arts Centre (FAC) - Arts Access Ticket Subsidy Scheme – Get a taste for the arts!

On behalf of the Frankston Arts Centre we would like to invite you to become part of the Arts Access Ticket Subsidy scheme.

The Arts Access role is funded by the FAC and VicHealth (Audience Access Scheme), for a two year period. The scheme aims to attract people facing issues of mental health with particular focus on creating inclusive environments and promoting access and participation for disadvantaged audiences and on attracting new audiences to the Frankston Arts Centre.

The key target groups are older men and women, in particular those who are economically and or regionally disadvantaged or socially and or regionally isolated, young people from 'at risk' backgrounds (socio-economic disadvantage, family history and background), single parents, people living alone and those who might be facing issues of mental health.

Aims

- To create an opportunity for economically disadvantaged and socially isolated individuals facing issues of mental health to access the FAC events and programs at a reduced rate or free.
- To enhance the mental health of individuals by providing a positive and rewarding experience at the FAC.
- To provide a positive Arts experience resulting in subsequent visits to the FAC.
- To enable individuals and organisations to create and nurture a positive link with the Arts Access Officer, FAC staff and the FAC as a whole.

Application Process:

- Prospective ticket subsidy scheme recipients acquire application form from FAC Box Office or Arts Access Officer. (not all requests can be filled)
- Send application form to :
Tim Dakin
Arts Access Officer
