QUESTION TIMEQuestions with Notice

The following questions were received with notice and responded to by Council officers during the Council Meeting for CM09 on 3 August 2026. The questions and responses have been provided below:

Tia MilneQuestion 1*Preamble provided by submitter1. Creating a Stronger First Impression of Frankston*

First impressions matter. For many visitors, investors and prospective residents, their first experience of Frankston is the entry from the Frankston Freeway. Unfortunately, this gateway does not currently reflect the quality, beauty or potential of our city.

The overgrown shrubbery, graffiti, damaged road barriers and lack of any significant welcome feature create an underwhelming arrival.

I believe Frankston deserves a landmark entrance that people remember.

Will Council consider an illuminated welcome feature that celebrates what makes Frankston unique. We are a bayside city with one of Melbourne's most beautiful beaches. A contemporary design incorporating lighting, water-inspired elements and quality landscaping would create a genuine sense of arrival and civic pride.

Question

1. Will Council consider an illuminated welcome feature that celebrates what makes Frankston unique?

Response

The Director City Advancement answered Council agrees that gateway entrances play an important role in shaping first impressions of Frankston City for residents, visitors and investors.

Council's Wayfinding Strategy and broader urban design initiatives seek to improve arrival experiences across the municipality through enhanced signage, landscaping, public realm improvements and destination identity. Projects such as Nepean Boulevard are helping to create a more attractive and connected city centre and waterfront experience.

As part of Council's Frankston City First advocacy campaign ahead of the 2026 Victorian State Election, Council is seeking State Government investment to improve the presentation of major gateway entrances and key transport corridors through landscaping, beautification and urban design enhancements.

The suggestion of an illuminated welcome feature is a valuable contribution. Opportunities for gateway improvements, public art, landscape upgrades and arrival features are considered through Council's strategic planning and capital works programs and this suggestion will help inform future discussions about gateway presentation and city identity. Council's creative lighting program has already illuminated several key locations across Frankston City, including the Beauty Park and Ballam Park Fountains, the Frankston Pier and Foreshore Boardwalk and tree lighting at locations such as Peninsula Aquatic Recreation Centre.

While the Frankston Freeway and associated infrastructure are managed by the Victorian Government, Council will continue to advocate for investment in these important arrival points and work with relevant authorities to enhance Frankston City's gateways and visitor experience.

Question 2Preamble provided by submitter2. Improving the Aesthetic of Nepean Highway and the Foreshore*

Nepean Highway is one of Frankston's principal roads, yet in many sections it lacks the presentation expected of a thriving bayside city.

Will Council consider a long-term beautification strategy that includes:

Attractive, low-allergen feature trees. The current trees drop terribly messy pollen.

Decorative lighting throughout key sections.

Australian flags.

Ongoing landscaping and maintenance that reflects Frankston's position as a premier coastal destination.

Along the foreshore, I also believe additional signage encouraging responsible pet ownership would make a meaningful difference. Simple reminders asking dog owners to clean up after their pets and to respect shared public spaces help reinforce community expectations and contribute to a cleaner, more welcoming environment. The current sign which is not illuminated is clearly not working.

I would also like to raise the issue of significant flooding along Nepean Highway, particularly outside 1/474 Nepean Highway, Frankston. Every time there is moderate to heavy rainfall, this section floods to the extent that approximately 10 to 12 on-street car parking spaces become unusable. This not only inconveniences visitors and customers to surrounding businesses, but also creates safety hazards for pedestrians and motorists. Given the importance of Nepean Highway as one of Frankston's primary commercial and tourism corridors, I would ask Council what plans are in place to address this longstanding drainage issue and improve the resilience of this section of road.

Question

2. Will Council consider a long-term beautification strategy that includes:

- a. Attractive, low-allergen feature trees. The current trees drop terribly messy pollen. Decorative lighting throughout key sections. Australian flags. Ongoing landscaping and maintenance that reflects Frankston's position as a premier coastal destination.
- b. what plans are in place to address this longstanding drainage issue and improve the resilience of this section of road?

Response

The Director City Services answered that Council recognises the importance of Nepean Highway and the foreshore as key gateways to Frankston and is committed to enhancing the appearance, function and visitor experience of these important public spaces.

The Nepean Boulevard Master Plan provides a long-term vision for a greener and more attractive corridor through landscaping, tree planting, public realm improvements and stronger connections between the city centre and waterfront. Council is working with Victorian and Australian Governments to deliver this vision, supported by recent funding commitments of $10 million for the Nepean Highway Precinct and $25 million for the Nepean Highway and Overton Road intersection upgrade.

Council carefully considers environmental, amenity and maintenance factors when selecting street trees and will continue to invest in foreshore landscaping and public realm improvements. Your suggestion regarding additional responsible pet ownership signage has been referred for consideration as part of ongoing reviews of foreshore signage and education programs.

Chairperson's initials.....

With respect to the flooding concerns outside 474 Nepean Highway, the observed water pooling appears to be primarily attributable to the road grading and the kerb and channel configuration along Nepean Highway, which falls under the management of the Department of Transport and Planning (DTP). Council officers will undertake a site inspection to ensure that the drainage pit and downstream drainage infrastructure in the vicinity are clear and functioning as intended. The matter will also be referred to the DTP for their investigation and any necessary remedial action in relation to the road drainage and pavement profile.

Question 3

Preamble provided by submitter

3. Community Safety and the Direction of the City Centre

My third concern is community safety and the overall direction of Frankston's city centre.

My family has owned and operated a business in Frankston for over 20 years, and through that time we have seen a noticeable increase in anti-social behaviour in the CBD.

This is not an abstract issue for us—it affects our business every week.

It is not uncommon for our shopfront window to be covered in spit or urine at least once a week. Human faeces are also regularly left on surrounding streets and footpaths. These are issues that our staff and neighbouring businesses are forced to deal with, and they create an environment that is unpleasant, unhygienic and unwelcoming for customers.

We also frequently observe people who appear to be affected by drugs or alcohol engaging in anti-social behaviour in public spaces. Regardless of the underlying causes, the impact on local businesses, residents and visitors is significant. People should be able to walk through our city centre feeling safe and comfortable.

Areas such as the Comfort Station often have groups congregating for extended periods, which can make people feel intimidated and reluctant to spend time in the area.

I also rarely see visible police patrols in the city centre.

I understand that Victoria Police is responsible for policing, but I would like to know:

What advocacy is Council undertaking to secure more visible police patrols in Frankston?

What measures is Council taking to reduce anti-social behaviour in key public areas?

How is Council ensuring that the city centre remains a place where families, shoppers, visitors and businesses feel safe and confident?

Question

3. What advocacy is Council undertaking to secure more visible police patrols in Frankston?
 - a. What measures is Council taking to reduce anti-social behaviour in key public areas?
 - b. How is Council ensuring that the city centre remains a place where families, shoppers, visitors and businesses feel safe and confident?

Response

The Director Community Connection answered Council acknowledges the concerns raised regarding anti-social behaviour, cleanliness and perceptions of safety in parts of the city centre. Creating a safe, welcoming and vibrant CBD remains a key priority and is reflected in Council's Community Vision 2040 and Council and Wellbeing Plan 2025-2029.

While Victoria Police is responsible for policing, Council continues to advocate for a strong visible police presence and works closely with Victoria Police through joint operations, community safety partnerships, information sharing and ongoing investment in Council's CCTV network.

Chairperson's initials.....

Council is also delivering a range of initiatives to improve safety and amenity, including the Community Connectors Program operating in the CBD and around Frankston Station, Rapid Response patrols, graffiti reduction programs, public space management and targeted responses to anti-social behaviour.

Council recognises that some issues are linked to complex challenges such as homelessness, mental health and substance misuse. Through the Rough Sleeping Protocol, Community Connectors program and partnerships with specialist services, Council seeks to balance community safety and public amenity with support for vulnerable people.

Through advocacy, partnerships, enforcement, infrastructure investment and public realm improvements, Council is working to strengthen both the reality and perception of safety in Frankston's city centre.
